

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN THE STATE OF HAWAII
AND
THE HAWAII GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES ASSOCIATION
[School Year Adjustment for 10-Month School Safety and Security Officers in Bargaining Unit 4]

THIS MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING is entered into on this 1st day of July, 2023, by and between the Department of Education, State of Hawaii (Employer), and the Hawaii Government Employees Association, AFSCME, Local 152, AFL-CIO (Union), on behalf of employees, School Safety and Security Officers, in Bargaining Unit 04.

WHEREAS, beginning with the 1998-1999 school year (SY), all School Safety and Security Officers began to receive compensation for seven (7) additional instructional days plus one (1) day of work prior to the reporting of students through a salary differential (SY differential) that increases the annual salary rate by 4.40%;

WHEREAS, the Employer provided a SY differential as separate compensation and in addition to the base pay of School Safety and Security Officers to account for the extended school year;

WHEREAS, the SY differential is referenced and explained in the 2021-2025 Memorandum of Agreement between the State of Hawaii and the Hawaii Government Employees Association for 10-month School Safety and Security Officers dated November 22, 2022 (see Attachment A);

WHEREAS, the Employer has been informed by the Employees' Retirement System of the State of Hawaii (ERS) that, starting from July 1, 2023, for certain classified employees hired after June 30, 2012, the ERS will no longer consider the SY Differential as creditable compensation for purposes of calculating the retirement pension;

WHEREAS, the Employer desires to adjust the School Safety and Security Officers salary schedule to integrate the SY differential into their annual base salary.

NOW, THEREFORE, the UNION and the EMPLOYER mutually agree as follows:

1. Effective July 1, 2023, the SY differential will be calculated as part of the annual base salary and will be reflected in the July 1, 2023 DOE School Security Safety Officer salary schedule (see Attachment B);
2. Effective July 1, 2023, the SY differential will be removed and will no longer be applicable; and
3. The last paragraph of section VII. Compensation, A. of the 2021-2025 Memorandum of Agreement for 10-month School Safety and Security Officers dated November 22, 2022, is revised as follows:

Note: Through June 30, 2023, [E]employees shall be compensated for seven (7) additional instructional days added to the school year plus one (1)* day of work prior to the reporting of students by receiving a salary differential that increases the annual salary rate by 4.40%.

Effective July 1, 2023, employees shall be compensated for seven (7) additional instructional days added to the school year plus one (1) day of work prior to the reporting of students by receiving a salary adjustment that is included in and increases the annual base salary by 4.40%.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Employer and Union, by and through their authorized representatives, have executed this Memorandum of Understanding on the day and year first written above.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT BETWEEN
AND
THE HAWAII GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES ASSOCIATION
(10- Month School Safety Security Officer, Bargaining Unit 04)

THIS MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT (MOA) is entered into the 22nd day of Nov., 2022, by and between the Department of Education, State of Hawaii ("Employer"), and the Hawaii Government Employees Association, AFSCME, Local 152, AFL-CIO, ("Union"), on behalf of 10-Month employees, School Safety Security Officers in Bargaining Unit (BU) 04.

It is mutually agreed that effective July 1, 2021 the following conditions relating to hours of work, work year, vacation leave, sick leave, personal leave, funeral leaves, compensation, Hepatitis B inoculation, and grievances shall be applicable to Department of Education 10-month School Safety and Security Officers in the white-collar supervisory unit of BU 04.

I. Hours of Work

- A. The work schedule for all full-time School Safety and Security Officers shall be eight (8) hours a day and forty (40) hours a week for each normal workweek.
- B. The work schedule for all half-time School Safety and Security Officers shall be four (4) hours a day and twenty (20) hours a week for each normal workweek.
- C. A School Safety and Security Officer shall have the right to refuse for good cause as determined by the Employer to work overtime, to accept temporary assignments and to perform any work not representative of their class.
- D. In the event that the Superintendent should authorize the early release of teachers on any day, School Safety and Security Officers shall work the complete work day subject to modification by the school principal.
- E. When undergoing a temporary change in work station, (e.g., attendance at a workshop activity or special meeting; participation in field trips or other student related activities; participation in other department sponsored activities), School Safety and Security Officers shall follow the work schedule required for the activity.

II. Work Year

All School Safety and Security Officers shall report to work one workday after Department of Education 10-month teachers in Hawaii State Teachers Association BU 05 and thereafter follow the work days designated for teachers on the official school calendar approved by the Board of Education.

School Safety and Security Officers shall not be required to work during summer, fall, winter and spring breaks, as well as on the day after Thanksgiving pursuant to the official school calendar approved by the Board of Education. School Safety and Security Officers shall report to work on the day between semesters.

The following shall apply to holidays and paid breaks:

- A. School Safety and Security Officers shall receive compensation for holiday(s) or paid break days if they are on full day's paid status or its equivalent, e.g., four (4) hours for twenty (20) hour Employees and eight (8) hours for forty (40) hour Employees, for at least one of the five working days immediately preceding the holiday(s) or paid break (four of the five working days involved may be on a leave without pay status).
- B. Exception: In the case of separation from service, e.g., resignation, termination, retirement, dismissal, layoff or death, compensation shall not be received for paid days occurring subsequent to the last day of employment.

III. Vacation Leave

Article 35, Vacation Leave of the White-Collar supervisory Employees' Collective Bargaining Agreement between the Employer and the Union (BU 04) shall not apply to School Safety and Security Officers.

IV. Sick Leave

- A. For School Year 2021-2022 and continuing, the following shall apply:

In lieu of paragraphs A.1. and A.2. of Article 36 of the BU 04 Agreement, ten (10)-month employees shall earn sick leave at the rate of sixteen (16) hours for each month of service during the school year, with the exception of the month of October and May at the rate of eight (8) hours, for a total potential earned sick leave of 144 hours. If the ten (10)-month employee renders less than a month of service, the amount of earned sick leave for such month (except October, May, as applicable) shall be computed as follows based on the percentage of Full-Time Equivalency (FTE):

Actual Straight Time Hours of Service	Earned Hours of Sick Leave
144 +	16
120 to 143	13
104 to 119	11
80 to 103	9
64 to 79	6
40 to 63	4
0 to 39	0

If the ten (10)-month employee renders less than a month of service in October and May (as applicable), the amount of earned sick leave for October and May shall be computed as follows based on the percentage of Full-Time Equivalency (FTE):

Actual Straight Time Hours of Service	Earned Hours of Sick Leave
128 +	8
104 to 127	6
88 to 103	5
64 to 87	4
48 to 63	3
24 to 47	2
0 to 23	0

The term "actual straight time hours of service" shall include paid holidays and paid breaks.

Sick leave allowance shall be administered by the Department of Education according to its guidelines for sick leave administration.

- B. Sick leave shall be allowed for medical, dental, optical, and optometrical examination appointments which the employee cannot schedule for non-work time.
- C. Illness at the Opening of the Work Year

An Employee who is ill at the opening of the work year shall be allowed paid sick leave to the limit of his/her accumulated sick leave.

V. Personal Leave

The employer shall grant up to six (6) days of personal leave per work year with pay to employees. Personal leave shall be requested from the employee's accumulated sick leave balance. Such personal leave shall be granted upon application for business that can only be transacted during the normal work hours of the School Safety and Security Officers and shall be charged against the employee's sick leave. A School Safety and Security Officer desiring to use such leave shall give at least twenty-four (24) hours advance notice, except in emergencies. Such personal leave is subject to approval and shall not be cumulative. The parties agree that personal leave is not intended to be used to extend breaks, holidays and other leaves.

Unused personal leave at the end of the school year shall be added to the employee's sick leave balance.

VI. Funeral Leave

In lieu of Section D, Article 37 of the BU 04 Agreement and in recognition of the fact that School Safety and Security Officers do not earn vacation leave credits, the following shall be applicable.

If the death or funeral occurs outside the State of Hawaii, the Employee shall, upon request, be granted a reasonable number of additional days of accumulated sick leave not to exceed three (3) working days or leave without pay for travel to attend the funeral.

VII. Compensation

- A. Compensation shall be administered according to DOE Administrative Regulation #5201, "Salary Administration for Ten-month Employees" as appropriately adjusted for the Employees' compensation and work year schedules. The Annual Salary Rate* shall be determined by the following formula:

Annual rate of compensation on the Unit 04 Salary Schedule ÷ 12 X 10

The Monthly Salary Rate, the Daily Salary Rate and the Hourly Salary Rate shall be derived as follows:

Monthly Salary Rate = Annual Salary Rate divided by twelve (12) months.

Daily Salary Rate = Annual Salary Rate divided by the Total Number of Paid Days within the Official Work Year when Salary is earned.

Hourly Salary Rate = Daily Salary Rate divided by eight (8) hours.

Salaries shall be paid in semimonthly installments over a period of 12-months subject to proper adjustments for absences without pay and other disruptions to salary earnings. The normal semi-monthly installment is determined by dividing the Monthly Salary Rate by two (2) pay periods.

Salaries shall be earned at the Hourly Salary Rate for each hour of paid status entitlement.

School Safety and Security Officers who work at less than 100% FTE shall have their compensation rate adjusted accordingly.

*Note: Employees shall be compensated for seven (7) additional instructional days added to the school year plus one (1) day of work prior to the reporting of students by receiving a salary differential that increases the Annual Salary Rate by 4.40%.

- B. School Safety and Security Officers shall be compensated for any work that they perform upon direction of proper authority on the day after Thanksgiving, during winter, spring, summer and fall breaks at the current hourly rate of pay derived from the BU 04 Salary Schedule for each hour of work performed in addition to their prorated 10-month pay except as provided for in this Memorandum. If employment is available for summer school, fall break, and/or after-school activities, employees who accept employment shall be compensated at the offered rate of pay.

VIII. Hepatitis B Inoculation

The Employer shall pay reasonable costs for Hepatitis B inoculations to the extent not covered by a School Safety and Security Officers medical insurance or workers' compensation benefits, when the Department of Health recommends the inoculation. Further, when the Department of Health confirms a School Safety and Security Officer treating physician prescription that such an inoculation is warranted due to the School Safety and Security Officers exposure to a carrier of Hepatitis B while performing duties within the scope of the School Safety and Security Officers responsibilities and while following the rules and regulations established by the Employer, the Employer shall pay reasonable costs for the Hepatitis B inoculations to the extent not covered by the School Safety and Security Officers medical insurance or workers' compensation benefits.

IX. Grievances

Any complaint by a School Safety and Security Officer or the Union concerning the application and interpretation of this Memorandum shall be subject to the Grievance Procedure contained in the White-Collar Supervisors Employees' BU 04 Agreement in effect between the Employer and the Union.

X. Expiration of this Memorandum of Agreement

This Memorandum of Agreement shall be effective from July 1, 2021 to and including June 30, 2025, unless either of the parties terminates this MOA by giving thirty (30) days written notice.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have executed this MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT the day and year first written above.
